

Hotel Indigo® Savannah Historic District.

Vibrant. Inviting. Local.

We're known for our fresh design, inspiring service and endless ability to intrigue guests with our distinctively local personality. We like to go out of our way to make our neighborhood easy to discover and appreciate. Our personal touch and courteous conversations are the signature service that begins the moment you walk through our door. And you can trust it when the person working at the front desk tells you where to find a good burger and a beer somewhere off the beaten path. Hotel Indigo Savannah Historic District is as individual as its surroundings. We took great care to preserve the original architecture of the historic Guckenheimer Building and to mirror the neighborhood we're a part of. You can taste it in the local food on our menus. Hear it in the sounds of the musicians who create a distinct neighborhood vibe. See it in the art and photography that is a snapshot of our intriguing history.

Travel like an explorer. Stay like a local.

Our 252 guest rooms infuse fresh design and inviting décor. Plush bedding, hard surface flooring, cozy rugs, custom neighborhood murals, spa-styled bathrooms filled with Aveda bath products, complimentary wireless internet access, and Keurig coffee brewers. We welcome our furry friends with open arms. Pet packages available. Our service is dedicated to responding to your individual needs. You are a guest in our neighborhood. During your visit, enjoy the Five Oaks Taproom, twenty-four hour business center, valet parking, wellness center, or just relax on our gracious patio overlooking the Ellis Square fountains. Incorporate Savannah's signature flavor into your next event. Enjoy 6,000 square feet of flexible gathering space. Our distinctive spaces with exposed brick, high ceilings, natural light, and custom murals will infuse your next event with character and inspire creativity. Catering from Savannah's premier Chef, Chris Nelson is locally-sourced and seasonally-inspired.
